Published by HRevents

The Corporate University Review provides senior-level Human Resource, Training and Organizational Development experts with leading-edge information on building and managing corporate training programs.

The Corporate University Review presents corporate university profiles, excerpts from HRevents' successful Corporate University Conferences, interviews with leading experts in the field, as well as the techniques required to take training to the "next level" within an organization.

A member of the HRevents family, the Corporate University Review concentrates on providing practical, objective and up-to-date insight from leaders in the field who work daily to "jump the curve" in today's corporate world.
